

CHIANTI CLASSICO RISERVA REVIEWS 2016

JAMES SUCKLING

This is how great Chianti Classico should be. So much lavender, violets and rose petals with orange-rind, lemons and blackcurrants. Medium to full body, lithe and pretty tannins and a juicy, mineral-driven finish. Drink now.

Aldo Fiordelli – Fresh, floral and full of fruit. Grainy tannins and an almost perfect balance on the palate – amazing fruit concentration. Great complexity of dark cherry, liquorice and earthy notes, with a finish of tobacco.

Andrew Jefford – Sweet, warm, beguiling fruits in very primary style: lots of vivid charm and seductive force. Cherry, raspberry and plum with barely a hint of forest here. On the palate, that singingly fruited style makes for a wine of huge charm. Super complexity, too: a wonderful drink.

Monty Waldin – Smooth, likeable texture, well balanced with good clarity.

Crafted from Riecine's Gittori vineyard in the commune of Gaiole-in-Chianti, this south-facing, terraced slope sits at 500 metres above sea level and was planted in 1971. After a natural cold maceration, the must ferments spontaneously with indigenous yeasts and is then aged in large casks. This wine is elegantly composed and fragrant, with a distinct earthy, fresh herb and stone personality. It demonstrates impressive precision throughout, with firmly assertive tannins giving ageworthy structure. There's a touch of resinous wood but this should smooth out with another year in the bottle. Drinking Window 2020 – 2030.

MICHAEL PINKUS WINE REVIEW

Rating: ****

Lots going on here including creamed currants, cran-cherry, mocha, white smoke and new suede, plus there's a floral element that brings a prettiness and delicacy to this mostly masculine-styled wine.

WINE INSIDE

Una riserva atipica, snella, succosa e colorata. Una dolcezza di frutto integrata a parti campestri, agrumate e speziate di paprika. Molto sale e tanta freschezza.

IDENTITA' GOLOSE

La fiducia nel Sangiovese dà buoni frutti. "...In alcuni casi, con alcuni produttori, ci dobbiamo ripetere: è il caso delle Riserve di Riecine, un riferimento per l'eleganza dei vini prodotti e per la capacità di esaltare le caratteristiche del Sangiovese."

INTRAVINO

Timo e lavanda, rose e incenso, ciliegia molto viva poi vetiver e cipria. Saporito e carnoso il palato che ha nella misura la cifra riconoscibile, eleganza di bergamotto e china, allunga e soddisfa a lungo.
