

LA GIOIA REVIEWS 2011

JAMES SUCKLING

94 pts

A powerful red with dried berry, cherry and vanilla aromas and flavors. Full-bodied, chewy and rich. A retro Super Tuscan. This has lots of character but remains fresh and bright. Aged three years in small oak with only 60% new wood. Drink of hold.

Clear ruby with light pale rim. Finely characterized nose with notes of raspberry, some pomegranate, dark sweet cherry. Round and supple on the palate, showing lots of sweet fruit, opens with finely-meshed tannins, develops well, it is juicy and with a long finish.
